

In the mornings I always brush my teeth!

Then I usually have breakfast on my balkony.

After the breakefast I always do my homeworks on the sofa.

After the "School" I always eat lunch.

When I'm not tired I often jump with my little roommate.

Or I often play Gravi trax.

In the afternoon I always eat my dinner.

And then I'm tired and I usually go to sleep.

See you tomorrow
